FIELD TRIP PERMISSION

Below is a permission slip that will allow your child to attend field trips for the current school year. This permission slip will be kept on file at the school throughout the school year.

Individual classroom field trip notices will be sent home to you during the school year notifying you of the time and date, as well as the outline of each trip.

At any point, should you not want your child to attend a particular trip, we ask that you send a note to the school.

K-12 PHOTO PERMISSION

Many times during the school year, we have occasion to take pictures of students. In addition to class pictures taken every year, the newspapers and television stations often will ask to take photos of students at play or work during the school day. We also take, digital images, slides and videos of special events and classroom experiences.

At any point, should you no longer want your child's photo taken, we ask that you send a note to the school.
